Guarantee

atmosfair guarantees that the saving of emissions will be certified by the responsible authorities and that corresponding certificates will be permanently stored in the cancellation account at the registry of the German Federal Environmental Agency (Umweltbundesamt). This is the formal proof that the emissions are permanently saved, that they can no longer be released in the atmosphere and that no other person can get hold of these emission savings.

Further information: www.atmosfair.de